1 (PROCEEDINGS held through Zoom conference before The Honorable
2 THOMAS I. VANASKIE, (Ret.) District Judge, at 4:00 p.m.)

3 JUDGE VANASKIE: Are we all set? I take it we are.
4 Please mute your microphones if you're not speaking. This 5 should be a relatively brief Zoom session.

6 We have Sharon Ricci, our court reporter, present.
7 Thank you, Sharon.

8 And let's -- I think the only thing we need to talk 9 about is some scheduling matters. Are you addressing these 10 matters on behalf of the plaintiffs, Mr. Slater?

11 MR. SLATER: Hello, Judge. I think that Conlee
12 Whiteley is likely to at least at the outset. I may add 13 something, but hopefully not.

14 JUDGE VANASKIE: Okay. All right.

15 Ms. Whiteley?

16 MS. WHITELEY: Good afternoon, Your Honor. We did 17 have a meet and confer with the defendants yesterday and 18 discussed some alternate dates in order to free up the week for 19 the Daubert hearings, and I believe that we've been able to 20 accept the alternate dates, all but one, although I do think 21 that there's a date possible. We were just still trying to pin 22 it down sometime during the week of the 21st. So it's 23 plaintiffs' position that we could stay on track for Daubert, 24 and I don't know if that's an argument for another day with a 25 different Judge, but that's the update from the plaintiffs'

1 perspective.

2 JUDGE VANASKIE: All right. And who's speaking on 3 behalf of the defense?

4 MR. REEFER: My name is Jason Reefer, I represent 5 Mylan Pharmaceuticals, and for purposes of our conversation 6 today, the defense.

7 JUDGE VANASKIE: Okay. And what's your view? Are 8 you --

9 MR. REEFER: I am sorry, Judge Vanaskie. I didn't 10 mean to interrupt you.

11 JUDGE VANASKIE: No. I was looking to get the defense 12 perspective on this matter.

13 Are you all in agreement on rescheduling the class 14 certification expert deps and moving forward for March 1st to 15 the 4th, I think it is?

16 MR. REEFER: Well, Judge, I think we're halfway in 17 agreement, and sometimes that's better than -- it's better than 18 we sometimes do.

19 So maybe it would help if we took a step back for a 20 moment and just sort of reoriented ourselves, because from the 21 defendants' perspective there are sort of two separate but 22 related issues that we wanted to discuss with the Court. And I
23 realize that the agenda statements were somewhat ambiguous. I 24 think that was somewhat purposeful because the parties were 25 still engaging in a meet and confer through last night, so

1 there was some uncertainty whether or not we would reach 2 agreement on some or all of the issues.

3           So from the defendants' perspective, there does appear 4 to be agreement with the plaintiffs that deadlines relating to 5 the completion of class discovery, as well as the filing of 6 responses to Rule 23 motions and Rule 702 class motions need to 7 be set out, I believe, 14 to 21 days, depending on where the 8 final experts slot in on the calendar. And so I think there's 9 agreement among the parties for that much.

10           I think where we might not have agreement is from the 11 defendants' perspective there -- it would be beneficial to the 12 parties and the Courts if there were a brief continuance of the 13 Rule 702 hearings, which are currently on calendar for March 1 14 through 4.

15           The reason for the defendants' position, Your Honor, 16 is that as currently situated, the parties are to serve or 17 exchange supplemental declarations on February 24th, and those 18 declarations are to serve as a de facto direct examination of 19 the proffered experts, and then those experts will be subject 20 to cross-examination and then perhaps redirect at the time of 21 the hearing.

22           You know, when you look at the calendar, Judge, 23 February 24 is next Thursday, March 1 is the following Tuesday, 24 which would mean that between disclosure of the supplemental 25 declarations and the potential beginning of the Daubert

1 hearings, you have just two business days. So from the 2 defendants' perspective, it would be beneficial to the orderly 3 presentation of argument and evidence during the hearings if 4 there were a continuance of those Rule 702 hearings until later
5 in March or early April.

6 So that's sort of the long and the short of it. To be 7 clear, Ms. Whiteley communicated that the plaintiffs are not 8 willing to join the request to continue the Rule 702 hearings, 9 but there does seem to be agreement on the need to move the 10 briefing deadlines and discovery deadlines for class 11 certification.

12 JUDGE VANASKIE: All right. Thank you.

13 Ms. Whiteley?

14 MS. WHITELEY: Yes, Your Honor. We did agree to move 15 all of the dates, because they are staggered and they relate to 16 one another, up to 14 days. If a deposition needs to be taken 17 a day out of turn, I don't think it would mess up that 18 schedule. It would be one of defendants' depositions of their 19 experts and it shouldn't affect their ability to file their 20 briefs. But that's our --

21 JUDGE VANASKIE: All right. And Judge Kugler has been 22 made aware of the request to push back the dates for the 23 Daubert hearings and has some flexibility on that score. I 24 wanted to suggest the possibility of moving the hearings so 25 that they would commence on March 28th and conclude by April

1 1st. There may even be some more flexibility there too, but 2 not beyond April 1st. They have to be concluded by then.

3 Does that mess up everything if we were to push them 4 back now to the 28th to the 1st?

5 MR. SLATER: Hello, Your Honor. Adam Slater. If I
6 could jump in for a second?

7 JUDGE VANASKIE: Certainly.

8 MR. SLATER: I'm going to be on a plane out of the 9 country on April 1st, I can tell you that. From the 10 plaintiffs' perspective, we're not really sure why the defense
11 is now asking for this continuance. Everybody has understood 12 what the deadlines were since Judge Kugler told them to us.
13 Everybody on our side has been structuring our schedules for 14 the entire month of March around these dates. We've gotten new 15 dates for depositions for some experts.

16 So we would have to do -- we would have to reengineer
17 our months basically. We've left these periods of time open 18 for the hearings. So the plaintiffs don't want to move these 19 dates because, again, we've relied on them and scheduled 20 ourselves. I can tell you, I'm going on April 1st early in the 21 morning out of the country on a vacation. My first time on an 22 airplane since COVID started, so I'm very excited about it.
23 But -- and I'm sure that other people have similar issues.

24 JUDGE VANASKIE: Yes, I have to confess, I just got 25 back from St. Thomas yesterday after four days there, so -- it

1 wasn't long, but it was nice.

2 MR. GOLDBERG: Your Honor, I --

3 JUDGE VANASKIE: Yes. Go ahead, Mr. Goldberg. Yes.

4 MR. GOLDBERG: I do think two points there are 5 important to point out. I think under the current schedule we 6 would have all of the expert depositions completed by March 7 28th. It looks like we'll have them done by March 25th. So if 8 we needed to move it up a day or two to accommodate Mr. Slater, 9 that would, I'm sure, be fine.

10 I do think a point about what Mr. Reefer was saying is 11 especially for those parties with foreign defendants, having a 12 day or two in between getting the declarations and doing the 13 Daubert hearing is really not enough time to make progress in 14 terms of communicating with our clients on these.

15 I do think the schedule that the parties agreed to in 16 terms of the class cert expert deps can be accomplished and it 17 will provide for an orderly flow of things to complete those 18 deps, do the Daubert hearing and then do the class 19 certification briefing.

20 JUDGE VANASKIE: All right. Thank you, Mr. Goldberg.
21 Anything else on this issue?

22 (No response.)

23 JUDGE VANASKIE: What I propose to do is to let Judge
24 Kugler know of the conversation that occurred on this 25 particular matter. As I said, I do understand that he has some

1 flexibility between March 23rd and April 1st. Obviously, we 2 wouldn't, Mr. Slater, interfere with your April 1st plans, but 3 it may be that he will be inclined to have the hearing start
4 around March 23rd and conclude by March 31st. But I can't 5 promise that at this time. I think ultimately that's Judge 6 Kugler's call to make.

7 But I did want you to know that he was aware of the 8 request and had provided information indicating there is some 9 flexibility there. But once he gets into April, his schedule
10 is completely filled up, so it would have to be completed now 11 by March 31st.

12 MR. HONIK: Your Honor, this is Mr. Honik. I think I 13 have bad audio.

14 Can you hear me okay?

15 JUDGE VANASKIE: I can hear you fine.

16 MR. HONIK: Thank you, sir. Judge, at the risk of 17 maybe underscoring something that may not have come up 18 directly, part of the calculus in relying upon the earlier 19 March dates has to do with the experts themselves. We're in 20 the midst now of identifying what declarations we'll be 21 preparing and serving and, of course, part of the calculus 22 there is having those experts available.

23 So I just want to point out the obvious, that it's not 24 often as simple as snapping one's fingers to have these experts 25 available, and certainly we've been working under the

1 assumption that it's going to be the first week in March.

2 That's point number one.

3           If we start as early as March 23rd, that's already 4 going to interfere with an important deposition I'm taking of a 5 key defense class expert on March 25th. So relying upon the 6 first week of March, we have already moved certain depositions, 7 very important ones, I dare say, to that third week in March, 8 which may have to be further changed, further complicating the 9 March schedule. So I just wanted to point that out to Your 10 Honor as well.

11           JUDGE VANASKIE: All right. Well, I don't think 12 there's anything that I can decide on this matter. I think 13 ultimately that's Judge Kugler's decision to make.

14           I will ask Sharon if she can prepare the transcript
15 from today's call so that we can get Judge Kugler's views.
16 Unless -- I know that I have Loretta Smith on this Zoom 17 session. Unless she thinks that we should try to bring in 18 Judge Kugler now.

19           THE LAW CLERK: In speaking with Judge Kugler today, 20 Judge Vanaskie, he was fine with your taking the lead on this,
21 unless you want him to join in the conversation.

22           I just have one thing I'd like to add to tell to the 23 parties. Judge Kugler is actually flexible to March 1st -- 24 excuse me, March 21st. So the week of March 21st all the way 25 to March 31st he can shift some things and give you space, and

1 that's the best he can do.

2 If that will work for you, you guys will have to make 3 decisions between you and among you, but that's what he can do.
4 So think of March 21st.

5 MR. SLATER: Thank you. And, Judge, I can tell 6 you -- it's Adam Slater -- we literally, based on the meet and 7 confer, just rescheduled a bunch of defense experts to March 8 21, March 25, etcetera, so they wouldn't be packed around the 9 schedule of dates.

10 JUDGE VANASKIE: Yeah. It may be that it's too late 11 to adjust the Daubert hearings schedule. I -- go ahead.

12 Is that Mr. Goldberg?

13 MR. GOLDBERG: Your Honor, I do think we can go back
14 to those original deposition dates. We had deposition dates 15 set for March 3rd, we can go forward with that date. We had a 16 deposition date set for February 27th, we can go with that 17 date.

18 I don't think we are locked in. Just as we were able 19 to shift some things today, I think we're happy to go back to 20 the experts to see if we can work things around, and it sounds 21 like Judge Kugler has flexibility to work some things around.
22 These things don't have to happen necessarily on consecutive 23 days or in one session.

24 But it really will afford for a more orderly process
25 to have this Daubert hearing coming after these depositions,

1 and we're happy to work with plaintiffs to try to find those 2 dates.

3 MR. HONIK: Your Honor, I would point out it's two 4 weeks away, and based on our conversations and reliance on the 5 schedule we were given by the Court, if what we -- if we do 6 what Seth is proposing, I, personally, for example, and this is 7 just one lawyer, would have four depositions in the span of 8 about seven days if we move them all back to the way they 9 were. I mean, there are lots of humans involved in these 10 depositions.

11 And I just think it's completely unworkable at this 12 point to rejigger what Mr. Reefer said was our agreement.
13 We've moved things to the end of March for a reason and we did 14 that to accommodate other aspects of our schedule. So it's not 15 such an easy plug and play. And in as much as, you know, March 16 is two weeks away, I just don't see that we can do it.

17 MR. GOLDBERG: We are -- I think what my understanding 18 is, we, the defendants, may have an expert witness that cannot 19 make it March 1st through 4th during the Daubert hearings, so 20 we'll have to move some things around then.

21 But, you know, moving the Daubert hearing four or five 22 weeks from now would give the parties enough time to find dates 23 for these depositions. We were asked to do that before. Those 24 dates are still good dates for many of these experts. They 25 were on the schedule. Plaintiffs asked for different dates, we

1     tried to accommodate those, and we can continue to try to 2     accommodate those deposition dates.

3             MR. HONIK: Judge, I'm looking at the list. There are 4     18 witnesses, 18 experts that have to be taken in this span of 5     time. We have worked really hard to this point to get them
6     locked in. We have dates for all these people at this point
7     that work, and we did it on reliance that March 1 through 4 8     would be the window to conduct the Daubert hearings. And 9     that's only two weeks away.

10            So, in essence, Seth is proposing that we go 11     completely back to the drawing board with multiple lawyers' 12     schedules, with some instances the need to travel out of 13     state -- not always, but some of these -- and I just think it's 14     going to create a nightmare.

15            Mr. Reefer started the conference by saying we have 16     agreement in part with the plaintiffs, and what he was 17     referring to is we've now locked in the deposition dates for 18     these people. And the only thing -- you know, it's not 19     convenient, obviously, for Mr. Goldberg and some of the 20     defendants to proceed on March 1 through 4, but we've known 21     this now for a month from the Court. And I just -- I'm loathed 22     to think of the upset that this will cause, not least because 23     at the end of the month, you know, Mr. Slater is going out of 24     town, a number of us have other travel plans, I'm supposed to 25     be in front of the JPML at the end of March and I have to 1 prepare for that.

2 I'm really concerned at the level of disruption -- 3 even though, generally speaking, we all would like a little 4 more time to prepare everything, I don't know how we're going 5 to do 18 depositions in the timeframe we're talking about and 6 create a new four-day or three-day period for Daubert hearings.
7 I just think --

8 JUDGE VANASKIE: Yeah, I understand. I understand the 9 problems facing both sides on this matter and I think all I can 10 do or I think the prudent thing for me to do is to let Judge 11 Kugler know of this discussion, have our court reporter prepare 12 the transcript pronto so you get an answer as quickly as 13 possible about whether the hearings will commence on the 1st 14 and go through the 4th or will be adjusted somewhat. That's 15 all I can say right now. All right?

16 MR. SLATER: Judge, I am sorry, if I could just add 17 one thing just to make sure you recall.

18 JUDGE VANASKIE: Sure.

19 MR. SLATER: I know Judge Kugler also told us the 20 14th, 15th and 16th were set aside in case a witness couldn't 21 appear that first week, so I just want to remind everybody that 22 we do have those few days that Judge Kugler said if someone 23 couldn't come March 1 to 4, that they could be presented those 24 three days too. So it does give some more flexibilities to the 25 parties.

1           That was already -- I had that on my calendar set
2 aside. I think that's what Judge Kugler said, if someone 3 couldn't come that first week, he could have the witnesses 4 that can't come the first week come then as well. If that 5 helps.

6           JUDGE VANASKIE: Yeah. Well, I think there is some 7 flexibility. And maybe with that understanding, I would urge 8 you, both sides, to continue to have a dialogue about what 9 might be doable here in this window of time between March 1st 10 and March 31st to both allow the depositions to be taken and 11 the Daubert hearings to be conducted.

12           If you need time on the class certification papers, 13 that part of it, the motion, the briefs, etcetera, that can 14 always be adjusted, and the dates for the depositions likely 15 can be adjusted.

16           I think that's about all we can accomplish right now.
17 We understand both sides' concerns and they are substantial.
18 When it comes to scheduling matters involving this many people, 19 it gets really complex. And to adjust something just two weeks 20 before the hearing is supposed to begin is difficult, we 21 understand that, but all I can do right now is bring this 22 matter to the attention of Judge Kugler. And you'll be hearing 23 from him shortly. But in the meantime, if you all could reach 24 some agreement on this, that would make the decision easier for 25 all of us. All right? So I'd urge you to continue to have

1 dialogue. Okay.

2 Anything else for today for the good of the order?

3 (No response.)

4 JUDGE VANASKIE: All right. Thank you all very much.

5 (Matter adjourned at 4:29 p.m.)
